

World Youth Parliament for Water

Making waves for youth-inclusive global development

Youth Vision for Water

Local action: Local youth action is recognized and implemented in all water spheres

Professional opportunities: Job opportunities are improved and diversified

Meaningful participation: Youth inclusion in decision-making is the norm, not the exception

Youth represent a significant source of skills, innovations and agency for solving water and sanitation problems in the context of climate change.

